

ADVANCED COURSE

MEDIATION IN INTERNATIONAL CONFLICTS

University of Genoa

Department for Political and International Sciences

Aula Mazzini – Via Balbi 5

22nd -27th July 2024

The “Advanced Course on Mediation in International Conflict” is a Summer School designed to delve into the dynamics of international conflicts and to develop advanced skills in conducting mediation in the context of international organizations and bilateral diplomatic relations. Through an interdisciplinary approach, the course focuses on mediation in international conflicts and the post-conflict phase, inclusive participation of civil society, and protection of children in armed conflicts.

The course aims to provide and consolidate advanced skills in order to create professional figures capable of being employed in international mediation, both during conflict and post-conflict peacemaking.

The Summer School is organized by the University of Genoa (Department of Political and International Sciences) and by Universities Network for Children in Armed Conflict with the support of the Italian Ministry of Foreign Affairs and International Cooperation.

Lectures and activities will be held in English. The course will run from Monday July 22nd, 2024 to Saturday July 27th, 2024. The course will be held only in presence and the participation to all the lectures and activities is mandatory in order to achieve the final diploma.
